

APPLEBY MAGNA.

SHOCKING SUICIDE.—An inquest was held at the Queen Adelaide Inn, Appleby Magna, on Saturday, before Mr. Harrison, coroner, on the body of James Tunnadine, aged 70 years, blacksmith, who died on Friday morning from the effects of a wound which he inflicted on his throat two days previously. He had been in a low, desponding way for some time.—Mr. Spencer Edmonds, surgeon, said the deceased died from the effects of a wound, which, he had no doubt, was self-inflicted. — Verdict, “Suicide while in a state of temporary insanity.”
